

JOHN CABOT UNIVERSITY

John Cabot University, founded in 1972, is an independent, four-year liberal arts university offering undergraduate degrees, graduate degrees, and study abroad programs to English-speaking students from all over the world.

Why study at John Cabot University?

1. JCU offers a welcoming, multicultural environment that fosters academic excellence and international career opportunities
2. Study in a US curriculum university at half the cost
3. Study in a US curriculum university with easier access to Study Visa and closer to Africa
4. Learn in small classes from professors who encourage dialogue
5. Internships at multinational companies, international organizations, NGOs, consulates, government offices, and museums
6. Opportunities for study and travel beyond Italy's borders to the Middle East, Asia and throughout Europe
7. Graduates from JCU are accepted at prestigious graduate schools worldwide including Columbia, Johns Hopkins, Oxford, Cambridge, the London School of Economics, Bocconi, and many more
8. openings in multinational companies, financial institutions, foundations, cultural organizations and diplomatic organizations, including Bloomberg, Arab African International Bank, Crowne Plaza –Rome, Heidrick & Struggles, Price Waterhouse Coopers, Honda, IBM, J. Paul Getty Museum, the World Food Program, the World Bank and the League of Arab States
9. JCU is located in the vibrant city of Rome, a cultural and historical hub that connects students to other major European cities. Our university's location makes it an ideal choice for students who want to study in English in Rome while immersing themselves in European culture.
10. A variety of international and local cultural events, allowing students to engage with Rome's rich history while celebrating their own backgrounds.

For further information, please go to Vita-Salute San Raffaele University