

UNIVERSITÀ CÀ FOSCARI DI VENEZIA

Founded in 1868 as the first School of Commerce in Italy, Ca' Foscari University has welcomed a dynamic academic community for over 150 years in the heart of Venice. Constantly innovating its educational offer, Ca' Foscari guarantees excellence and multidisciplinary learning, as confirmed by its rankings in national and international league tables and its impressive post-graduation employment rates.

Why study at Cà Foscari?

1. World-ranked in 16 different subject areas that range across the humanities, social sciences, and science and technology, Ca' Foscari offers excellence in both teaching and research.
2. UNESCO World Heritage city, with its student population and its year-round calendar of events, Venice offers a vibrant, cosmopolitan lifestyle
3. High-quality education offered as a public university and subsidised by the Italian government, for genuinely affordable degrees.
4. Italy's top university for internationalisation, teaching more than 40 languages and facilitating cultural studies of all kinds, plus over 500 exchange agreements around the world
5. Despite being located in a city with over 1,600 years of history, Cà Foscari is a modern, forward-looking institution in every way.
6. Ca' Foscari encourages a tailored educational experience based on what every student needs
7. Cà Foscari gives utmost priority to the career of its students even before embarking on their degree programmes.
8. A amazing university community, events and initiatives enrich and inspire student life through cultural and sports events.
9. Cà Foscari is committed to help students get settled in through its International Office, which organises and coordinates a Buddy Programme and a dedicated International Welcome Week packed with orientation and social events, all of which makes the daunting experience of studying abroad not only manageable but enjoyable and welcoming.
10. The whole application procedure takes place on our international application platform, so there is no need to fret over sending us physical documents during the evaluation process.

For further information, please go to Cà Foscari University of Venice