

UNIVERSITÀ EUROPEA DI ROMA

The European University of Rome (EUR) is a private, legally recognized university that issues academic qualifications with legal value. Founded by the religious congregation of the Legionaries of Christ in 2004, the European University of Rome, is part of the great tradition of the Catholic Church and an international network of universities where every student is at the heart of an innovative educational project.

Why study at EUR?

1. An international University based upon a great human values, engaged in leading future professionals. A great choice for an ethical and cultural education.
2. As part of an international network of universities, our global institution integrates its educational project with a wide range of international and social experiences creating prepared professionals with high human values who will positively affect society.
3. The modern campus of Università Europea is located at only 5 min by train from the centre of Rome, a city that embodies the best of the Italian culture as it offers an inimitable blend of history, art, culture, life and opportunity.
4. The European University of Rome offers to its students the opportunity to access services and activities at favourable conditions and prices.
5. The European University of Rome is located in a modern campus.
6. The courses offered are characterized by an interactive and dynamic way of teaching so students can establish a direct relationship with each professor and this leads to create an authentic academic community. Lectures offered bring high level of learning through a very effective teaching method.
7. In addition to various degrees the learning process includes social responsibility activities and soft skill's development in order to boost a positive attitude and commitment towards others.
8. Academic training is completed through studies abroad. This means to deepen language skills, widen cultural background and live important experiences for human and professional growth.
9. The European University of Rome also assists graduates in finding job opportunities through internships, traineeships and job interviews.
10. The European University of Rome trains professionals and people with solid values, aware of their commitment, who will be in charge of building a new spirit to promote people's dignity.

For further information, please go to Università Europea di Roma University