

UNIVERSITY OF ROME TOR VERGATA

Also known as University of Tor Vergata, University of Rome Tor Vergata is a public research university located in Rome, Italy. Located in the southeastern suburb of Rome, the university combines a liberal arts tradition with emphasis on career orientation in the field of Economics, Engineering, Mathematics and Physics, Natural Sciences, and Medicine.

Established in 1982, the University of Rome Tor Vergata currently offers 106 graduate programmes (Bachelor's degree, Master degree, One-cycle degree) and 32 PhD courses.

Why study at the University of Rome Tor Vergata?

1. The University is located in Rome, at the very heart of the Western Civilisation.
2. Like all Italian State Universities, the University of Rome Tor Vergata offers quality education at an extremely affordable cost.
3. Second in Italy for international students, eighth in the QS Rankings, and ranked in the top ten Italian universities .
4. Placed 355th out of 1,501 universities worldwide. The State University of Rome Tor Vergata has a strong clinical and research expertise which will take Medicine students from the classroom to the laboratory through to the patient's bed in the main local hospitals.
5. More than 90% of graduate satisfaction
6. The University of Rome Tor Vergata offers a wide network to connect students as they go about their studies, embrace research, work on dissertation in one of the many foreign partner universities, in Europe and across the world.
7. The mission of the University of Rome Tor Vergata is to contribute to people's education and training, to scientific research and to the technological, organisational and social innovation needed to achieve a truly sustainable development in Italy, Europe and worldwide pursuant to the Sustainable Development Goals approved by the United Nations in September 2015.
8. The University of Rome Tor Vergata aims at playing a leading role in research and education, as well as in technological, economic, organisational and social development in order to become not only a 'sustainable University' but also one of the best European Universities by 2025.
9. The University of Rome Tor Vergata is committed to being an open space to develop advanced and high-quality knowledge, lifelong learning and training for youngsters and adults, to conceive and experiment innovative solutions hence achieving sustainable development.
10. The University of Rome Tor Vergata cooperates both with similar national and international bodies and with public and private research institutes, promoting the internationalisation of teaching and research, investing in lifelong learning for teaching and administrative staff, pursuing the development of existing resources to be exploited in the most efficient way.

For further information, please got to University of Rome Tor Vergata